1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. These Terms of Business govern all actions in regard to the execution of the Client's Instructions.
- 1.2. These Terms of Business and the Client Agreement shall govern all the Client's Transactions and should be read carefully by the Client.
- 1.3. Unless otherwise defined, capitalized terms used in these Terms of Business shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Client Agreement. In addition, the definitions set out in Clause 11 ("Interpretation of Terms") shall apply.

2. GENERAL TERMS

Quotes

- 2.1. The Company will recalculate Quotes for all Instruments in real time, based on market conditions and streaming prices/liquidity received from Liquidity Providers, and will periodically send to the Client some of these Quotes as Market Snapshots.
- 2.2. Client shall receive quotes through his/her Client Terminal in MyFXTM. All Quotes shall represent the best possible available Bid and Ask price on the market at the time, as this may be provided by the Company's Liquidity Provider(s).

The Client understands and accepts herein that such quotes, as these may be represented by the Company, are considered correct and valid as provided by the Company's Liquidity Provider(s).

The Client further understands and accepts herein that such quotes may vary significantly for the following, but not limited, reasons:

- a) due to the different Client Account Type(s); and/or
 - b) due to market prevailing conditions; and/or
 - c) due to Over the Counter (OTC) decentralized market(s).
- 2.3. The Client acknowledges that:
 - a) the Company has the right not to send to the Client those Quotes that have not changed since the previous Market Snapshot;
 - b) the Client may not receive through the Client Terminal all the Quotes that have been in the Quotes Flow between Market Snapshots; and
 - c) Spread is not fixed and will vary depending on market conditions and streaming prices/liquidity received by the Company from Liquidity Providers.

Execution of the Client's Instructions

- 2.4. The procedure for handling the Client's Instructions given through the Client Terminal is:
 - a) the Client prepares an Instruction and the Client Terminal checks if it is valid;
 - b) the Client Terminal sends the Instruction to the Server;
 - c) if the connection between the Client Terminal and the Server has not been disrupted, the Server receives the Instruction and starts the process of verification;
 - d) a valid Client's Instruction is placed in the queue and sorted by arrival time (first in – first out) and the "Order is accepted" status appears in the "Order" window in the Client

Terminal. The Company shall not be responsible for any delays in the execution of any Orders in Abnormal Market Conditions;

- e) as soon as a Dealer is ready to handle a new Instruction the Dealer takes the first Instruction from the queue and processes it¹ and the “Order is in process” status appears in the “Order” window in the Client Terminal;
 - f) the Server receives from the Dealer the result of the Client’s Instruction execution process;
 - g) the Server sends the Client Terminal the result of the Client’s Instruction execution process; and
 - h) the result of the Instruction execution is received by the Client Terminal if the connection between the Client Terminal and the Server has not been disrupted.
- 2.5. The Client has the right to cancel a previously given Instruction only if the Instruction has the “Order is accepted” status. In order to cancel it, the Client shall press the “Cancel order” button. The Client cannot cancel an Instruction given by an Expert Advisor.
- 2.6. If the Instruction is being processed by a Dealer and its status is “Order is in process”, the Client has no right to cancel it.
- 2.7. The Company at its sole discretion will specify the current market price.
- 2.8. The standby time for each Instruction which has been placed in the queue in order to be executed has a limit of 3 (three) minutes at the time of the release of Terms of Business. If during this period of time, the Instruction has not been received by a Dealer, it is deemed to be irrelevant and automatically deleted. Once an Instruction is received by a Dealer, the Dealer processes it as soon as practicably possible. Abnormal Market Conditions may result in Client Orders being rejected for execution.
- 2.9. In the circumstances listed below, the Company may decline an Instruction (the “Off quotes” message will appear in the Client Terminal in this case) if the:
- a) Instruction precedes the first Quote in the Trading Platform on the Market Opening;
 - b) Company is not able to hedge the trade with a Liquidity Provider; or
 - c) Client’s Free Margin is less than the Initial Margin.
- 2.10. The Client shall only give Instructions through the Client Terminal. To avoid problems associated with the inability to open or close positions, we recommend using Pending Orders such as Stop Loss and Take Profit.

Transactions

- 2.11. The Ask price is used to make a “buy” Transaction. The Bid price is used to make a “sell” Transaction:
- a) The Ask price is used to open a Long Position. The Bid price is used to open a Short Position.
 - b) The Bid price is used to close a Long Position (i.e. sell). The Ask price is used to close a Short Position (i.e. buy).

Rollovers

¹ Depending on the amount of time a Dealer needs to process an Instruction there is a possibility that in the Server Log File the recorded execution time of the first Instruction in the queue will be later than the execution time of the Instruction which followed after.

2.12. All the positions which remain open from 23:59:45 to 23:59:59 (Server time) will be subject to rollover. All the positions which are opened or closed from 23:59:45 to 23:59:59 (Server time) may be subject to rollover. The positions will be rolled over by debiting or crediting the Client's Trading Account with the amount calculated in accordance with the Contract Specifications.

Quotes Base Synchronization

2.13. In case of an unforeseen break in the Quotes Flow caused by software or hardware failure, the Company has the right to synchronize the Quotes Base on the live Server from other sources. Such sources include:

- a) Quotes Base on the demo Server;
- b) any other reliable sources².

In the case of any Disputes arising in regard to the break in Quotes Flow, all decisions are made in accordance with the synchronized Quotes Base.

Leverage

2.14. The size of the Leverage depends on the Client's Open Positions as described on the Company's Trading Terms Webpage

2.15. The Company is entitled to apply new margin requirements amended in accordance with Clause 2.15 to the new positions and to the positions which are already open.

2.16. The Company has the right to change the Leverage for a particular Client at any time and at its sole discretion with prior Written Notice. Any such amendment shall enter into force upon notification of the client.

3. OPENING A POSITION

3.1. In order to give an Instruction to open a position the Client shall specify the following:

- a) Instrument; and
- b) Transaction Size.

3.2. In order to open a position through the Client Terminal without using an Expert Advisor, the Client shall press the "Buy by Market" or "Sell by Market" button. The Client's Instruction to open a position may be executed at a price that differs from the Quote the Client has received through the Client Terminal during the last Market Snapshot in the following cases:

- a) If the current Quote changes since the last Market Snapshot;
- b) If the Quote from the last Market Snapshot is for a lower Transaction Size than the Client's Instruction Transaction Size.

In any case the Instruction will be executed at the best price available from the Company's Liquidity Providers.

3.3. When opening a position through the Client Terminal using an Expert Advisor, the Client is not able to specify Stop Loss and/or Take Profit Order levels. If the Client wishes to place these Orders, the Client can do it by modifying the existing position in accordance with Clauses 1.5.16 to 1.5.22.

Processing and Execution of Instructions to Open a Position

² If necessary, information is not available on the demo Server.

- 3.4. Once the Server has received the Client's Instruction to open a position, it automatically checks if the Free Margin is sufficient to open the position:
- a) "Free Margin" is calculated as follows: $\text{Free Margin} = \text{Balance} - \text{New Margin} + \text{Floating Profit} - \text{Floating Loss}$;
 - b) all Floating Profits/Losses for all Open Positions and the new position are calculated at the current Quotes;
 - c) cumulative Client positions and new Necessary Margin ("New Margin") are calculated for the Matched Positions depending on the Hedged Margin; for other positions this is dependent on the Initial Margin, which is calculated at the average weighted price (in terms of volume) of all positions except the matched ones;
 - d) if the above-mentioned calculations for the new position have been done and:
 - "Free Margin" is more or equal to zero, subject to clause 2.9, the position is opened. The process of opening the position is followed by the relevant record in the Server Log_File; or
 - "Free Margin" is less than zero, then the Company has the right, but not obligation, to decline the Instruction to open the position and the "No money" message will be recorded in the Server Log-File.
- 3.5. An Instruction to open a position shall be deemed executed and the position shall be deemed open once the relevant record appears in the Server Log File.
- 3.6. In the Trading Platform, each Open Position has a Ticket.
- 3.7. An Instruction to open a position will be declined by the Company if it precedes the first Quote in the Trading Platform on the Market Opening. In this case the "Off quotes" message appears in the Client Terminal window.

- a) If the current Quote changes since the last Market Snapshot;
 - b) If the Quote from the last Market Snapshot is for a lower Transaction Size than the Client's Instruction Transaction Size.

In all instances, the Instruction will be executed at the best price available from the Company's Liquidity Providers.

Processing and Execution of Instructions to Close a Position

- 4.3. If amongst the Client's Open Positions, the Client has a position which he/she wishes to close against a matching Open Position of the same Instrument, the Client can do so by using the "Close by" item in the "Type" drop down list. Upon matching/closing the Client's chosen positions, the Client will have either a zero or net Long/Short Position based upon the net overall exposure. The Client should note that the net overall position will be allocated a new Ticket.
- 4.4. If amongst the Client's Open Positions, the Client has multiple positions which he/she wishes to close against matching Open Positions of the same Instrument, the Client can do so by using the "Multiple Close by" item in the "Type" drop down list. - 4.7. An Instruction to close a position may be declined by the Company if it is made when the Stop Loss or Take Profit for this position is in the queue in order to be executed. In this case the "Off quotes" message appears in the Client Terminal window.

If any of the indicated information is incorrect and the Orders are placed/modified/deleted through the Client Terminal without using an Expert Advisor, the Instruction will be declined and the "Modify" button will remain inactive.

5.18. When the Client gives an Instruction to delete a Pending Order, the Client shall specify its Ticket.

5.19. An Instruction to modify or delete an Order is deemed executed and the Order is deemed modified or deleted once the relevant record appears in the Server Log_File.

5.20. An Instruction to modify or delete an Order may be declined by the Company if it precedes the first Quote on the Market Opening. In this case the "Off quotes" message appears in the Client Terminal window.

5.21. The Company has the right, but not obligation, to decline an Instruction to modify or delete an Order if, while it is being processed, the Order has been placed in the queue in order to be executed in accordance with Clause 5.23. herein.

5.22. When the Client gives an Instruction to modify or delete an Order Level, the Company has the right, but not obligation, to cancel the Order Level modification or Order deletion, if the processing of that Instruction is finished after the Order is placed in the queue in order to be executed in accordance with Clause 5.23. herein.

The Procedure for Order Execution

5.23. The Order is placed in the queue in order to be executed in the following cases:

- a) the Take Profit on open Long Position is placed in the queue in order to be executed if the Bid price in the Quotes Flow becomes equal or higher than the Order Level;
- b) the Stop Loss on open Long Position is placed in the queue in order to be executed if the Bid price in the Quotes Flow becomes equal or lower than the Order Level;

- c) the Take Profit on open Short Position is placed in the queue in order to be executed if the Ask price in the Quotes Flow becomes equal or lower than the Order Level;
- d) the Stop Loss on open Short Position is placed in the queue in order to be executed if the Ask price in the Quotes Flow becomes equal or higher than the Order Level;
- e) the Buy Limit is placed in the queue in order to be executed if the Ask price in the Quotes Flow becomes equal or lower than the Order Level;
- f) the Sell Limit is placed in the queue in order to be executed if the Bid price in the Quotes Flow becomes equal or higher than the Order Level;
- g) the Buy Stop is placed in the queue in order to be executed if the Ask price in the Quotes Flow becomes equal or higher than the Order Level;
- h) the Sell Stop is placed in the queue in order to be executed if the Bid price in the Quotes Flow becomes equal or lower than the Order Level;
- i) If any Sell Stop, Buy Stop, Sell Limit or Buy Limit Instruction includes a Take Profit or Stop Loss, as the case may be, and there is a Price Gap when the Bid price or the Ask price in the Quotes Flow exceeds the Take profit or the Stop Loss, as the case may be, then the Order will be opened and closed simultaneously with the respective Bid and Ask price.

5.24. Once the Pending Order is placed in the queue in order to be executed, the Server automatically checks if the Free Margin is sufficient to open the position:

- a) cumulative Client positions and new Necessary Margin ("New Margin") are calculated for Matched Positions depending on the Hedged Margin; for other positions this is dependent on the Initial Margin, which is calculated at the average weighted price (in terms of volume) of all positions except the matched ones;
- b) if the Pending Order Level is in the Price Gap, the Floating Profits/Losses for all Open Positions and the new position are calculated at the current Quotes at the moment the Order is placed in the queue in order to be executed; and
- c) "Free Margin" is calculated as follows: $\text{Free Margin} = \text{Balance} - \text{New Margin} + \text{Floating Profit} - \text{Floating Loss}$;
- d) if the above-mentioned calculations for the new position have been done and "Free Margin" is less than zero, then the Company has the right, but not obligation, to decline the Instruction to open the position and delete the Pending Order and the "No money" message will be recorded in the Server Log_File.

5.25. An Order is deemed executed once the relevant record appears in the Server Log File.

5.26. In case of Pending Order execution, the process of opening the position is followed by the relevant record in the Server Log-File and the position opened by this Order has the same Ticket as the Pending Order.

5.27. In the cases where insufficient liquidity exists at the order level and/or the order level falls within a price gap at market opening and/or during the quote(s) flow, the Company, in its sole and absolute discretion, may execute Buy Limit, Sell Limit and Take Profit orders at the requested price at the moment the order is executed.

5.28. In the cases where insufficient liquidity exists at the order level and/or the order level falls within a price gap at market opening and/or during the quote(s) flow, the Company, in its sole and absolute discretion, may execute Buy Stop, Sell Stop and Stop Loss orders at the current available price at the moment the order is executed. The Client acknowledges, agrees and consents herein that the execution price may differ from the order level.

- 5.29. Pending Order can be executed partially if there is not enough liquidity to hedge the trade with Liquidity Providers at the Order Level. In case of insufficient liquidity from Liquidity Providers for the full execution of an Order at the Order Level, the Order will be executed partially and new Pending Order will be issued with the originally specified parameters on unfilled amount. Under Abnormal Market Conditions, any Pending Order may be rejected.
- 5.30. In the cases where a pending order level and/or the respective order's Stop Loss and/or Take Profit shall fall within a price gap at market opening and/or during the quote(s) flow, the Company, in its sole and absolute discretion, shall open and close a position immediately within the same tick, at the first available price.

Stop Out shall be executed at the current price available at the moment the order is executed. The Client acknowledges, agrees and consents herein that in the cases where the Stop Out is executed by the Company, the Stop Out shall be executed at the price at which the Company has hedged the position and the price shall be adjusted by the Company, in its sole and absolute discretion in order to reflect such hedging cost(s).

- 6.3. If the Client has several Open Positions, the first position which has to be placed in the queue in order to be closed is the one with the highest Floating Loss.
- 6.4. If a Stop Out execution has resulted in a negative Balance of the Client's Trading Account, the Client shall be liable for this loss and must make a payment of the full and total amount due immediately. Company has the right to compensate this loss at the expense of the Client's funds located in other Accounts belonging to the Client.
- 6.5. The Company has the right to close any Open Positions of the Client without a warning if it is required in accordance with the Dispute process.
